Few weeks ago, I introduced my immigrant students a website which they can listen to tons of audio files in polishing their listening abilities and computer skills. By the same token, ESL Podcast could be another useful website for ESL students to brush up◆English proficiency. For example, I would first choose a topic, seeing a specialist, for my students. In a computer-selling classroom, students would be asked to listening to this particular podcast the first time without referring to the script. The second time students have to jot down what they think of this podcast is mainly about, the theme. Then I would show the script to my students and require them to go to Merriam Webster, the online dictionary, to look up vocabulary they do not know in the script. After that we will discuss together about the meaning of the unknown words and the practice of making sentence out of those words will be assigned. When finishing up all of the activities, students will be asked to listen to the podcast again. By doing so, students can review what they just pick up and learn some more common sense and background knowledge about seeing a specialist.  ESL Podcasts <ul><li>Audio English Lessons. Over 100 Talk show ESL podcasts from two Canadian brothers.</li> </ul> <ul><li>English as a Second Language Podcast. A new podcast is added each day for you to download or listen online.</li> </ul> <ul><li>Learn Songs. Learn to sing folk songs, campfire songs and group-singing songs that native English speakers sing.</li> </ul> <ul><li>ITESLJ Podcast. Links of Interest to Teachers and Students of English as a Second Language.</li> </ul> News Podcasts <ul><li>NPR Podcast. National Public Radio news updated daily.</li> </ul> <ul><li>CBS News Podcasts. All the news programs from CBS.</li> </ul> <ul><li>CNN News Update (hourly audio). The latest news happening in the U.S. and around the world.</li> </ul> <ul><li>Fox News Podcasts. Just click the Download Podcast button to sign up for FREE FOX News podcast.</li> </ul> <ul><li>BBC Global
